LESSON OVERVIEW

What should students know/do by the end of this week's lessons?

Students will learn to follow classroom routines and explain the course focus, using accurate textbook terminology and a justified example. They will also learn to identify genre conventions and explain audience expectations, using relevant evidence and clear explanations. Through teacher demonstrations, discussion and practical activities, students will practise these skills and explain their ideas.

End-of-Week Assessment/Check: How will you know they got it?

Teacher questioning, discussion, completed activities and the final checks in both lessons. Check accurate terminology, specific evidence and clear explanations of the weekly topics.

LESSON SLOTS - TUESDAY & FRIDAY

Lesson	Date	Learning Objective	The Lesson Flow	Differentiation
1	25 August 2026	Lesson 1: Course introduction, overview and classroom routines By the end of this lesson, students will be able to follow classroom routines and explain the course focus.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of course introduction, overview and classroom routines. ID: Teach media texts, audiences, analysis and production; safe equipment use, respectful discussion, file naming and saving. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students sort examples into media forms and explain one audience; save a short response in the agreed folder. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students demonstrate saving and state two classroom routines. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.

2	28 August 2026	Lesson 2: Film: genre and conventions By the end of this lesson, students will be able to identify genre conventions and explain audience expectations.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of film: genre and conventions. ID: Teach genre, conventions and hybrid genres; familiar settings, characters and iconography in film. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students classify three teacher-selected film examples; support each genre claim with two visible conventions. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students explain how a convention creates an audience expectation. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.
