LESSON OVERVIEW

What should students know/do by the end of this week's lessons?

Students will learn to analyse information and meaning in film posters, using accurate textbook terminology and a justified example. They will also learn to explain how stars and poster choices attract audiences, using relevant evidence and clear explanations. Through teacher demonstrations, discussion and practical activities, students will practise these skills and explain their ideas.

End-of-Week Assessment/Check: How will you know they got it?

Teacher questioning, discussion, completed activities and the final checks in both lessons. Check accurate terminology, specific evidence and clear explanations of the weekly topics.

LESSON SLOTS - TUESDAY & FRIDAY

Lesson	Date	Learning Objective	The Lesson Flow	Differentiation
1	22 September 2026	Lesson 1: Film posters: information and meaning By the end of this lesson, students will be able to analyse information and meaning in film posters.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of film posters: information and meaning. ID: Teach main image, title, tagline, colour, layout, credits and release details; denotation and suggested genre. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students annotate two posters using a feature, meaning and evidence grid; infer genre and likely audience. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students support a genre inference with two poster details. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.

2	25 September 2026	Lesson 2: Stars, audiences and poster promotion By the end of this lesson, students will be able to explain how stars and poster choices attract audiences.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of stars, audiences and poster promotion. ID: Teach star image, casting, audience appeal and alternative posters for different audiences; promotion through image and wording. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students compare two promotional versions and explain how the same star or film is presented differently; sketch one justified change. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students justify how a poster choice addresses a particular audience. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.
