LESSON OVERVIEW

What should students know/do by the end of this week's lessons?

Students will learn to evaluate film-promotion methods beyond posters, using accurate textbook terminology and a justified example. They will also learn to explain distribution and exhibition and consolidate film analysis, using relevant evidence and clear explanations. Through teacher demonstrations, discussion and practical activities, students will practise these skills and explain their ideas.

End-of-Week Assessment/Check: How will you know they got it?

Teacher questioning, discussion, completed activities and the final checks in both lessons. Check accurate terminology, specific evidence and clear explanations of the weekly topics.

LESSON SLOTS - TUESDAY & FRIDAY

Lesson	Date	Learning Objective	The Lesson Flow	Differentiation
1	29 September 2026	Lesson 1: Other ways to promote films By the end of this lesson, students will be able to evaluate film-promotion methods beyond posters.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of other ways to promote films. ID: Teach trailers, newswraps, articles, interviews, appearances, internet advertising and word of mouth; captive audiences. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students compare a trailer with another promotional method; plan a small campaign for a fictional film and justify the methods. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students explain how one method attracts interest without giving away the whole story. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.

2	2 October 2026	Lesson 2: Distribution, exhibition and unit summary By the end of this lesson, students will be able to explain distribution and exhibition and consolidate film analysis.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of distribution, exhibition and unit summary. ID: Teach distribution, exhibition, audience reach and classification; links among genre, narrative, audience positioning and promotion. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students map a film's route to an audience, then write an evidence-based response connecting two Film unit concepts. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students distinguish distribution from exhibition and support one unit-summary claim. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.
