LESSON OVERVIEW

What should students know/do by the end of this week's lessons?

Students will learn to analyse representation and social change in sitcom, using accurate textbook terminology and a justified example. They will also learn to analyse television news and consolidate the Television unit, using relevant evidence and clear explanations. Through teacher demonstrations, discussion and practical activities, students will practise these skills and explain their ideas.

End-of-Week Assessment/Check: How will you know they got it?

Teacher questioning, discussion, completed activities and the final checks in both lessons. Check accurate terminology, specific evidence and clear explanations of the weekly topics.

LESSON SLOTS - TUESDAY & FRIDAY

Lesson	Date	Learning Objective	The Lesson Flow	Differentiation
1	17 November 2026	Lesson 1: Sitcom and representation By the end of this lesson, students will be able to analyse representation and social change in sitcom.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of sitcom and representation. ID: Teach recurring situations, comic conflict and restoration; stereotyped roles, gender and changing representations over time. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students compare a textbook sitcom example with a teacher-selected later example; revise a stereotyped scenario and justify the changes. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students explain a representation using evidence and social context. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.

2	20 November 2026	Lesson 2: Television news and unit summary By the end of this lesson, students will be able to analyse television news and consolidate the Television unit.	H: Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of television news and unit summary. ID: Teach news selection, presentation, presenters, footage and audience; reliability, privacy, legal and suitability checks; unit concepts. WD: Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD: Students rank fictional news stories and justify selection; annotate a news opening, then complete a Television unit concept review. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C: Students explain one editorial selection decision and connect two Television unit concepts. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.
