LESSON SLOTS - TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

Lesson	Date	Learning Objective	The Lesson Flow	Differentiation
1	25 August 2026	Lesson 1: Course introduction, overview and classroom routines By the end of this lesson, students will be able to follow classroom routines and explain the course focus.	H (5 min): Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of course introduction, overview and classroom routines. ID (10 min): Teach media texts, audiences, analysis and production; safe equipment use, respectful discussion, file naming and saving. WD (10 min): Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD (15 min): Students sort examples into media forms and explain one audience; save a short response in the agreed folder. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C (5 min): Students demonstrate saving and state two classroom routines. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.

2	28 August 2026	Lesson 2: Film: genre and conventions By the end of this lesson, students will be able to identify genre conventions and explain audience expectations.	H (5 min): Use a short example or retrieval question to activate prior knowledge of film: genre and conventions. ID (10 min): Teach genre, conventions and hybrid genres; familiar settings, characters and iconography in film. WD (10 min): Model one analysis or worked response. Identify a specific feature, explain its meaning and link it to audience or purpose. YD (15 min): Students classify three teacher-selected film examples; support each genre claim with two visible conventions. Require evidence and explanations, then check responses with a partner. C (5 min): Students explain how a convention creates an audience expectation. Use responses to identify misconceptions.	Support: Provide key vocabulary, a labelled example and a response frame. Break the task into steps and check understanding before independent work. Extension: Compare an alternative example or interpretation and justify how context changes the audience response.
